What are INSET days?

Inset days (short for In-Service Training days) are 6 days of the year allocated to each school by the Welsh Assembly Government. The Head Teacher and Senior Management teams of each school decide where these days take place in the academic year. These days are used to improve teaching, update staff on new curriculum changes, and plan how to best support children's learning and wellbeing. Schools in the Radyr Cluster work closely together to collaborate and support each other, using our combined expertise and external advisors to positively impact on all our pupils. For parents, it means children have the day off school, but the time is being used to make sure staff are fully prepared to give pupils the best education and care.

There are Parent WhatsApp groups for each year group. These are really useful to clarify any messages from the school or, as often is the case, to reunite lost school items!

The PTA have requested that if a year group does not already have a parent representative, please could a parent nominate themselves and make themselves known. A message from the PTA will be put on the WhatsApps groups regarding this.

European Day of Languages 2025

The European Day of Languages, celebrated every year on September 26th, is all about enjoying different languages.

At Bryn Deri Primary School, students took part in fun activities to learn about European languages and cultures. Young chefs cooked traditional dishes, and the school was filled with music as students danced to European tunes. Older students researched different countries, while younger ones made crafts like flags and costumes. These activities made the celebration both educational and enjoyable, encouraging unity and respect for different cultures.
