MacMillan Coffee Morning

This morning, our school hall was filled with smiles, conversation and plenty of delicious treats as we came together for our annual Macmillan Coffee Morning.

A huge thank you to everyone who supported the event by donating their time, money, cakes and treats. We would also like to thank our PTA, whose support helped make the morning such a success. Your generosity helped create a wonderful community event for a very worthy cause.

A particular highlight was the fantastic performance from our Year 2 and Year 3 pupils, who sang clearly, confidently and with great enthusiasm. They entertained everyone in attendance and made the event even more special.

Events like these are an important part of school life, helping pupils learn about kindness, empathy and the importance of supporting others, while raising money for worthwhile causes.

All money raised will be donated directly to Macmillan Cancer Support, helping them continue the incredible work they do for people living with cancer and their families.

Thank you once again to everyone who contributed. We are incredibly proud of the support shown by our school community.

An aerial map of the Bryn Derwen area in Cardiff, Wales. The map shows a residential neighborhood with streets including Bryn Derwen, Cae'r Graig, and Cefn Coch. Key landmarks such as the Bryn Derwen Primary School, Lynn Rees Sports Massage, and Photography by Gabi are marked. Red arrows are overlaid on the map, indicating traffic flow directions. The arrows show a general pattern of traffic entering from the top and left, moving through the residential streets, and exiting towards the bottom and right. The M4 motorway is visible at the top of the map.
